

Contact: deLyn Alumbaugh

January 5, 2011

Stoudtburg Village is pleased to announce its 2011 calendar of events. Last year thousands of people visited this quaint German themed village tucked in the foothills of Adamstown, Pa. Building on the successes of 2010, this year is shaping up to be even more exciting with new shops, more events, and even several weddings! More events are likely to be added as details are finalized, so please be sure to check our website often.

April 26 - Annual Easter Bunny Visit - 11 am-1pm – Help kick winter to the curb and welcome the spring season with a visit to the Easter Bunny. Bring the kids and spend the day browsing the shops while the tots enjoy candy, balloons, and a special egg hunt on the grounds. All events are free, although a donation of canned goods for the local food bank is appreciated.

April 29-30 - Spring Extravaganza in Adamstown – The Entire Antiques Strip will be open later and stocking more antiques. This can also be a great time to find deals since many stores will be running special sales. The shops at Stoudtburg Village honor this tradition with our annual Sidewalk Sales.

May 7 - Yard Sales in Stoudtburg Village – Come find some great bargains when the residents of Stoudtburg Village open their doors and hold this once-a-year yard sale in cooperation with the Lions Club.

June 12 - The Stoudtburg Village Garden Tour – New for this year, several gardens at Stoudtburg Village have been chosen to take part in the Adamstown Friends of the Library Garden Tour. Contact Karen for additional details. 717 - 484-0542

June 16 - The Party on the Plaza – Due to the overwhelming success of last year's live concert series, Stoudtburg Village will again host a series of music events. Bring a chair and enjoy the music, or browse the shops as we stay open late to enjoy the wonderful summer weather. Further details to be announced soon.

June 25-26 - Summer Extravaganza in Adamstown – The Entire Antiques Strip will be open later and stocking more antiques. This can also be a great time to find deals since many stores will be running special sales. The shops at Stoudtburg Village honor this tradition with our annual Sidewalk Sales.

July 15 - The Party on the Plaza – Stoudtburg Village is proud to announce the second date for our summer long series of live music events. We are still finalizing the details... but we the village is guaranteed to be rockin' as we stay up late for a concert and some good company.

August 13 - Dream Ride Project Bicycling Event (Nightmare Tour) – This bicycle race is considered to be the most difficult single day bike event in the country. Starting in Marietta, Pa., the riders travel south to the Maryland state line before heading north again. By the time they reach Stoudtburg Village the bikers will have travelled about 100 miles. Come out to encourage them along as they stop in the village for lunch. More details about the race can be found at :
http://www.bikelancaster.com/BicyclingEvents.html#Nightmare\_Tour

August 18 - The Party on the Plaza – If you missed the first two parties, be sure to mark your calendar for this one as we wrap up the summer with our final concert event. Do you know of a band that would be interested in playing to a crowd of hundreds? Give us a call, we're still auditioning bands for all three events!

September 10 - Earth Spirituality Festival - 10:00am - 6:00pm - Come out for a day of education, merriement, and shopping. All events are free, but non-perishable items will be collected to help those in need.

September 24 - Carnival Day - 11am – 2pm – Be sure to bring the children for this free day of carnival themed fun and games! This event is sponsored by the Village Scoop and Café in cooperation with the Stoudtburg Village shopkeepers. Food and drinks will be available for purchase.

September 24-25 – Fall Extravaganza in Adamstown – The Entire Antiques Strip will be open later and stocking more antiques. This can also be a great time to find deals since many stores will be running special sales. The shops at Stoudtburg Village honor this tradition with our annual Sidewalk Sales.

October 8 and 9 – Craft Fair

October 22 – Stoudt's Brewery 12K Run – Starting at 10 A.M. at the Wonderful Good Market, finishing at the Stoudtburg Clock Tower.

October 22 - Harvest Night - 6pm - 8 pm – Dress up in your spookiest costume and help Stoudtburg Village celebrate the Harvest season. Enjoy a night of shopping and trick or treating throughout the village shops and homes.

November 26 - Cookies with Santa –Bring your Christmas list because Santa will be stopping by the village to visit with all of the good boys and girls. Stop by the Village Scoop and Café for free cookies and balloons. A donation of canned goods for the local food bank is requested so we can share the bounty with those less fortunate.

December 3 - Annual Candlelight Tour & Open House – Come celebrate the Christmas season with a true holiday classic. Stroll the winding avenues of Stoudtburg Village as you experience the holiday with “A Christmas Carol” actors and enjoy the sounds of a live brass band and harpist. Plus, the merchants will be keeping their doors open late, and in a once-a-year event, select residents will open their homes for public tours.

###